

You can control some muscles. How do you write? You use a pencil and move your hand. Your brain tells these skeletal muscles to move.

Fun Fact

It is easier to smile than to frown. Frowning uses more muscles than smiling!

There are about 17 muscles that make your fingers and hand work.